

Managed IT Solutions for Local and State Government

TPX[®]

TPx helps governments address their biggest IT challenges: cybersecurity, connectivity, and collaboration.

The fast switch to remote work, rapid digitalization, and a growing number of cyber threats have kept government IT professionals on their toes. Now imagine the havoc the pandemic would create without the power of IT. We have seen that IT can help governments be very effective and efficient, but it comes with new challenges and demands.

As we enter “a new world,” customers and staff alike not only want, but expect governments to provide digital ways to get things done — without having to show up in person. Governments are starting to realize it’s critical to address these new needs instead of meeting pre-COVID expectations.

With all the available federal funding for IT improvements, now is a great time to position yourself for the future.
